

- 1) a Kemp's Ridley
 - 2) f Olive Ridley
 - 3) g Green
 - 4) c Leatherback
 - 5) d Hawksbill
 - 6) e Flatback
 - 7) b Loggerhead
- a) Crabs, clams, & mussels
 - b) Clams, horseshoe crabs, & shrimp
 - c) Jellyfish
 - d) Crustaceans, mussels, & tunicates
 - e) Sea cucumbers, mussels, & prawns
 - f) Sponges, anemones, & squid
 - g) Sea grasses & algae

8) The upper part, or back, of a sea turtle's shell is called the

- a) Plastron
- b) Carapace
- c) Scute
- d) Scale

9) The lower part, or underside, of a sea turtle's shell is called the

- a) Plastron
- b) Carapace
- c) Scute
- d) Scale

10) Which sea turtle species dives the deepest?

- a) Leatherback Turtle
- b) Hawksbill Turtle
- c) Loggerhead Turtle
- d) Green sea Turtle

11) Which of the following is not a human-caused threat to sea turtle survival?

- a) Captured in shrimp nets
- b) Beach front lighting
- c) Ghost crab predation
- d) Coastal armoring

12) The thick shell that covers the back of the sea turtle is called Carapace.

- a) True
- b) False

13) Baby sea turtles are called little swimmers.

a) True

b) False

14) When sea turtles go ashore to lay their eggs it is called Nesting.

a) True

b) False

15) List and discuss TWO threats that put sea turtles in danger?

Correct answer not provided.